There will be an election of Board Members in conjunction with the annual meeting. The Board of CGSUSA currently has seven trustees, each of whom is elected for a three-year term. This year, members will elect three trustees as we expand our board to eight members.

The first term of both Elizabeth Burghart and Erin Miller expire this year. Elizabeth has chosen to run for her second term. She currently serves as Chair of the Extraordinary Form Committee and the Orthodox Committee. Erin has decided not to run for re-election. We thank her for her generous and diligent service as Board Secretary, Chair of the Methodist Committee, and member of the Governance, Tina Lillig Memorial Committee, and Executive Committee.

The call for nominations has been sent. Please study the gifts and talents we are seeking and pray for wisdom and discernment in our community. With the generosity of our donors and the Lilly grant, we need trustees with experience in business management and accounting more than ever.

Board Chair Susan Stuhlsatz-Reese will lead the meeting. It is open to all members, potential members, and guests of the association.

Respectfully,

National Director
