The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

For Courses

Each formation leader or formation team in collaboration with the hosting site coordinator will need to be in conversation about if and when any catechist formation session needs to be cancelled. A statement about the cancellation will need to be sent to participants. While it may be of interest to the formation leader/team and participants to engage in some online dialog regarding assigned course readings in an online platform, it is the policy of CGSUSA not to have video-recording or video conferencing of any CGS catechist formation especially presentations. We place a high value on the personal engagement catechists in formation receive by being present with one another in a course setting which is by design offered like the atrium experience for children. For any questions regarding catechist formation please contact Karen Maxwell, karenmaxwell@cgsusa.org.
