

Throughout the year the Church remembers and celebrates the saving work of Christ including especially designated days of celebration.

